Inspirational week

Hanan Merza

Meet Hanan Merza, Maximize's co-founder and CEO, and an ambitious young Bahraini that strives to make Maximize the kingdom's main hub and go-to platform for learning new skills and activities, as well as giving it's users a chance to take their hobbies to the next level by providing a chance to share their experiences and skillsets.

Hanan has been an avid and active member in youth empowerment and leadership development with more than four years of experience in projects and products with international youth organization, AIESEC.

Huda Marzooq

Huda Marzooq is a Bahraini entrepreneur that embodies the true definition of being a "go-getter", through her determination and clear vision, she decided to bring Jimmy's Killer Prawns to Bahrain right after trying it in Abu Dhabi, and contacting the head office in South Africa in 2014. Huda believed that this was the perfect example for creating a job instead of looking for one. Huda was 8 months pregnant with twins and still managed to achieve her goal with great perseverance.

Azza Al Hujairi

Inspired and fascinated by local myths and legends, Azza Al Hujairi, jewelry designer owner of Azza Fine Jewelry, channeled that fascination to mesmerizing and elegant traditional jewelry pieces consisting of gold and natural pearls, which are a visualizing of the Kingdom's landscapes, heritage and legendary stories. Azza worked closely with the Gemological Institute of America to know more about history and mythology to link them with Bahrain, and launched her business in 2012.
