Motherhood is that one dream for all girls, the strongest bond in the entire world that you would ever discover and experience, unconditional and unlimited love because of the friendship that formed while raising them.

Fatema Bastaki

IMTIAZ for Her Co-Brand Manager

Quality time is not about how many hours you spend with your child, it's about how you spend the time together, so when your are with your kid, shutdown everything external, focus on them, give them your all, listen to them, and create beautiful moments together.
