Inspirational week

Faeqa AlMoayyed

A woman that emerged from the Kingdom's "Golden years", and one it's leading pioneers in women's social work, the late Faeqa AlMoayyed dedicated her life to social and voluntary work in addition to her calls and efforts for the political participation of Bahraini women, and ensuring a role for them in social and welfare work.

She also played an active role in associating Alnahda Society, the first women association in the Gulf, alongside the late Aysha Yateem who was colleague at that time.

Rawan Maki

Bahraini women have always set the bar of innovation and creativity high, and fashion designer Rawan Maki, the Arab world's first sustainable clothing brand owner, is definitely a perfect example for that.

Rawan specializes in designing fashion pieces and collections made up entirely from recyclable and natural materials to protect and maintain the environment.

Hala AlAbbasi

Today and during Ramadan especially, we are happy to highlight Bahrain's very own talented graphic designer, Hala AlAbbasi @haluulie that reached international heights, after designing Instagram's Ramadan themed stickers for the entire world to use. Instagram personally got in touch with Hala to work closely with her to design the Ramadan stickers, that took 6 weeks of hard work and dedication, resulting in beautiful stickers that capture the essence of Ramadan.
